

RIVERA “CAPPELLACCIO”

The name “Cappellaccio” refers to the thin, calcareous crust found around 50 cm (20 inches) under the soil. Cappellaccio fully shows the outstanding characteristics of the Aglianico grape.

Deep ruby color; fruity, rich bouquet displaying complex varietal characteristics.

Tannic but not too aggressive, with good potential for extended development.